HAPPY BIRTHDAY 1776-1976

We, the class of 1976, dedicate this yearbook to the Faculty of Friends Academy who have dedicated their time and effort to us over the years.

High School is the whirl of Fall
leaves
Swirling across a road at twilight.
It's a gold-plated megaphone
dangling
from a dainty chain.
It's buying all the latest
fashions,
then baby-sitting.
It's meeting friends,
watching the winning
touchdown
and experiencing
the thrill
and sweat
of a locker room
after the struggle.
High School is cramming
for an exam
that you'd rather forget.
It's a shiny bronze ring that catches the light.
High School is growing up, and
growing up is wishing you were young again.

UNFORGETFUL BEGINNINGS

It is but a beginning
of a new life, submitting
to new wishes and goals,
of a new way untold,
That is quite different for each.

It is but a beginning,
of a new life, submitting
to new ladders and loves
of climbing high above,
A standard capacity.

But it is not the forgetting,
of true friendships unrelenting,
that shall be with one forever,
if proper giving never dwindles.

Two people,
in different spheres of living,
Share one mind.
Spirits belonging to each other,
the distance never parts them.
But they search on.

Poetic Satire
on
ANATOMY

I saw your teeth flash,
and make the corned beef hash

I saw your ears bend,
and make the borrowers lend.

I saw your eyes freeze,
and make the whole world sneeze.

I saw your nose light,
and make the toothless bite.

I saw you die
and make me cry!

MAME

A cure-all —
everything from a heartbreak to a toothache.

Smiling, glum,
Silly, never serious,
She could try to be,
Yet she could try to be anything
and succeed.

Faithful, oh Lord, is she,
Kind, generous, helpful.
Nothing hinders her,
not even herself
And the best (and most beautiful)
things come in small packages.

Hold out to me your hand.
I need it oh so desperately.
You're always on the move,
Running, it seems.
But no —
You wouldn't run from me.
Yet I see you as a
relay racer, with your hand
outstretched behind you, Waiting impatiently to grasp the baton and then be off . . .

Your love, no, even just your friendship is so clear, that again and again
I find myself running back to you between my pretended loves with others.
